DESCRIPTION
The Inaugural North Carolina Adolescent and Young Adult (AYA) Oncology Symposium will bring together multidisciplinary providers and researchers from across the state who are interested in improving care for this patient population. With a focus on collaboration and education regarding the unique medical and psychosocial needs of AYAs in North Carolina, this knowledge-based symposium will feature a mix of didactic lectures, breakout sessions, and panel discussions.

Participants will take away practical ideas to improve care for AYAs at their institution. Additionally, connections will be made that will foster future research and collaboration among North Carolina providers, researchers, and institutions.

AUDIENCE
Physicians, Nurses, Pharmacists, Social Workers, Researchers, Psychologists, Recreational Therapists, Child Life Specialists, Advance Practice Providers, Physical and Occupational Therapists, Hospital Administrators, Program Directors

OBJECTIVES
Upon completion of this knowledge-based educational activity, participants will be able to:

- Describe the unique medical and psychosocial needs of the AYA oncology population
- Examine inter-institutional connection and collaboration across the state of North Carolina
- Identify and apply strategies to improve AYA cancer care in North Carolina
